

Lynchburg Public Library
Adult Summer Reading Program 2006

Complete any seven of the boxes and turn in completed form by September 6

List book and author in each block

Read a Biography or Autobiography	Read a Mystery	Read a Book of Poetry	YOUR CHOICE!
Read a Book by a Non-American Author	Read a Science Book	Read an Award Winning Book (Pulitzer Prize, National Book Award, etc.)	Read a Book by an African American Author
Read a Book about a Foreign Country	Read a Book to a Child	YOUR CHOICE!	Read a Science Fiction or Fantasy Book
YOUR CHOICE!	Read a Book about a Religion that is Different from Yours	Read about Someone with a Physical or Mental Disability	Read What Your Kids are Reading. Read a book on the schools' summer reading list.

Name _____

Adult Summer Reading Program June 19 to September 6, 2006

Why Participate?

- ❖ Experience the Pleasure of Reading!
- ❖ Read some books you might not otherwise have read!
- ❖ Be a mentor – by your example show a child that reading is important to adults.
- ❖ Recommend books you've enjoyed to others.
- ❖ Earn a Friends of the Library tote bag!

Adult Summer Reading Program Rules

1. All adults may enter the program at either branch.
2. Participants must read at least seven books to claim a prize. Audio books count, too!
3. List the books you have read on the chart on the other side. When you have read seven books, return the chart to either branch to claim your prize.

Lynchburg Public Library
2315 Memorial Ave., Lynchburg, VA 24501
455-6310
www.lyncburgva.gov/publiclibrary